Attainment of Programme Outcome (PO) and Course Outcome (CO)

Direct ways to evaluate course outcomes:

In reference to the stipulations of the University of Calcutta, apart from the end-semester examinations, the college conducts an internal examination consisting of attendance (10%), internal assessment (IA) (10%), and tutorial examination (15% for non-practical based subjects)/Practical examination (30% for practical based subjects).

In addition, the college also conducts continuous internal evaluation through class tests, discussions, and project-based assignments, which helps to estimate the course outcomes and provides scope for the students for improvement. After identifying the academically weak students, the departments take the initiatives to draft appropriate measures like arranging some special classes for the particular students after the class scheduled hours in consultation with the IQAC cell. The students who receive the highest marks in the University examination are also awarded on the day of annual functions every year to boost their morale and motivate others to perform well.

Indirect ways to evaluate course outcomes:

The indirect method score is calculated on feedback reports obtained from the students after completion of the course. Teacher Assessment includes 20 marks for each students based on class response and performance. The average score is obtained based on the student's responses. Attainment level score is calculated for each course by combining 80% of the direct method score and 20% of the indirect method score.
