Empowering Women to Teach and Make a Difference
August 29, 2024

Career Counselling and Placement Cell organized a career counselling lecture on August 29, 2024, in collaboration with IQAC and Mindopia International Pre-School. The topic was “Empowering Women to Teach and Make a Difference”. The speaker, Mrs. Syed Tasneem Shakeel, the Founder and Principal of MI School, discussed about the various avenues available for women to work in the 21st century. She focussed on how women can empower themselves by getting into the teaching profession. She spoke elaborately on how this noble profession will help the students to contribute to the betterment of the society by making a difference in the lives of many people. She told students about the various teacher training courses that they can pursue to be a teacher. The talk was attended by 5 teachers and 34 students.
