

Visit to various historical sites in Hooghly district (05.07.2024)

An educational tour to various historical sites situated along the banks of the river Hooghly in Hooghly district was organised by the History department on 5th July, 2024 under the supervision of its faculty members. The participating students were from 4th semester of the department. The group started off from the college around 7:30 am and reached its first destination around 10: 30 am. The sites that the group visited include the Basilica of the Holy Rosary (commonly known as Bandel Church) in Bandel, followed by the Hangseswari Temple in Bansberia, Hooghly Imambara and the Institute de Chandernagore, also known as Dupleix palace in Chandannagar. The group departed from its final destination at around 5pm.